

M.Phil Thesis Grant(Qualified for Presentation)

| S.N. | Name of applicant | Faculty/Department            | Topic                                                                                                                                                                        |
|------|-------------------|-------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1    | Sharada Sapkota   | Humanities and Social Science | Morphological structure of Nepali Sign Language                                                                                                                              |
| 2    | Ashish Kafle      | Humanities and Social Science | Perceived Overprotective parenting and well-being among emerging adults: Role of awareness of needs, gestalt contact disturbances and basic pshchological needs satisfaction |

Signature

