Journal of Nepalgunj Nursing Campus (JNNC)

Introduction

The J*ournal of Nepalgunj Nursing Campus (JNNC)* is a bi-annual, peer-reviewed journal that aims to publish original research articles, fostering multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary scholarship. It is open to researchers across diverse academic fields, providing a platform for innovative research contributions. The Editorial Board comprises subject experts from various disciplines, ensuring a comprehensive review process.

The JNNC employs a double-blind peer-review system to maintain the integrity and quality of its publications, with rigorous measures to prevent plagiarism. To uphold ethical standards, only one manuscript per author is accepted per issue, and submissions from members of the Editorial Board are not considered to avoid conflicts of interest.

Types of Articles

The journal invites submissions of original research articles and studies, review articles and case studies presenting innovative methodologies, novel findings, or multidisciplinary applications. Articles should address contemporary challenges or provide fresh perspectives, encouraging the synthesis of ideas across different disciplines.

Confidentiality

Manuscripts submitted to JNNC are treated as confidential documents. Access to these manuscripts is limited to the editorial team, reviewers, and individuals directly involved in the review and publication process. Authors' identities are anonymized prior to peer review to ensure impartiality and transparency.

Conflict of Interest

Reviewers must disclose any potential conflicts of interest and, if necessary, recuse themselves from reviewing manuscripts where such conflicts arise. The Editorial Board ensures that alternative reviewers are assigned in such cases.

Submission Policies

Authors must submit a completed Author Declaration Form (available on the journal website) alongside the manuscript. Submissions must be original, unpublished, and not under consideration elsewhere. Manuscripts containing copyrighted material must include proper permissions and acknowledgments.

The Editorial Board reserves the right to reject manuscripts, even after acceptance, if they are found to violate the journal's ethical or academic standards.

General Formatting Guidelines

Manuscripts must adhere to the JNNC formatting guidelines available on the journal's website. Submissions must be prepared in British English, following the provided template, and include clearly labeled sections such as title, abstract, introduction, methodology, results, discussion, and conclusion.

Authors should not alter the journal's template settings, including font styles, sizes, or character formatting. Additional guidance on manuscript preparation can be found in the JNNC style guide.

Key Sections of the Manuscript

1. Abstract: A concise summary (maximum 250 words) of the research, including objectives, methods, key findings, and conclusions. No citations, tables, or figures should appear in the abstract. It must be structured abstract.
2. Keywords: Provide up to five keywords immediately following the abstract in alphabetical order.
3. Introduction: Contextualize the research, outline the problem, and specify objectives. Include relevant references to previous research.
4. Methodology: Describe the research design, data collection, and analytical methods in sufficient detail for replication.
5. Results: Present findings using appropriate tables, graphs, or charts to enhance clarity.
6. Discussion: Interpret the results, relate them to existing studies, and highlight their significance.
7. Conclusion: Summarize key findings, highlight contributions, and propose future research directions.

Figures and Tables

- Figures: Must have a minimum resolution of 300 dpi, with titles placed below. Include them in the main text. In APA 7th Format.
- Tables: Numbered sequentially with titles placed above. Avoid duplicating content in the text. In APA 7th Format.

References

Citations and references must follow the latest edition of the APA 7th referencing style. Use DOIs where available. Ensure that all sources cited in the text are included in the reference list and vice versa.

Author’s Responsibilities

- Link the study to relevant literature and clearly identify research gaps.
- Ensure the manuscript addresses a specific theory, whether to test, generate, or apply it.
- In the conclusion, connect findings back to the research question and literature review.

Copyright and Licensing

The JNNC is published under the Creative Commons Attribution License 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0). Authors retain copyright and may disseminate their work freely, provided the journal is acknowledged as the original source.

Privacy Policy

Personal details provided during manuscript submission are used exclusively for the purposes of journal communication and publication. For detailed privacy guidelines, refer to the journal's website.

Publication Fees

The JNNC does not charge publication or submission fees.

Publication Frequency

The journal publishes two issues a year, in December and June.

Abstracting and Indexing

This journal will be indexed in NepJOL and University Website immediately after publishing.
